

Getto
know

for business

Dear colleagues!

The quiz “Get to know” is an intellectual game, which is successful in organization of leisure time activities as well as in scientific and business ones. Its unique scenario was being approbated till 2015 and on its 10th anniversary it was patented. All these years, the quiz has been perfectly managing with every wish of our clients.

Numerous experiments confirmed that material comprehension during this game makes up more than 75% - by that, we can certainly say that our game is for both - study and entertainment. Due to the elaborate rules of game, all participants have an opportunity to prove themselves. The most noticeable feature of the quiz is that reaction of participants in giving the answer is irrelevant. In this quiz the main task is aimed at knowledge, competence, and the rate of making up decision. Taking into consideration that there is an opportunity of free choice of quiz topic, there is not any difficulty to turn this into a business game.

It is possible to reduce or increase the question quantity as well as the period on its cogitation or to input any assessment scale (in standard version there are 10 topics with 5 questions in each, and the time for giving answer is 30 seconds) - the scenario of game is transformed for all your wishes easily.

The creation of an ideal project team is often associated with something impossible. It is true that the best result doesn't depend on gathering professionals in one team, and well-managed and united team unceasingly leads to success. Let's imagine the situation:

There are several employees in your company, who are able to head project groups. And it is required to choose the best one. Which means would you choose? The latest results of their work?

Well-established rapport between a director and an employee? Or you just make a decision on that, who deserves it more in your personal opinion? We suggest absolutely another, effective and useful way - Challenge them! Let each candidate create his own project group by himself, involving other employees. And when the teams are ready they start to play! During the competition between the teams for the title of the best project, the competitors will do their best to achieve this goal. Obviously, to make that, they should learn more information, develop their skills, or in other words – to educate themselves.

Dear directors and colleagues, only imagine – staff starts to strive to self-improvement, through the clearly defined tasks. No force, no extra cost – just entertaining, motivating game. It is all you can dream about!

During the world instability and crisis, reducing of stuff - work expenditure is absolutely needed for any company more than ever. However, many business representatives try to derive optimistic moments from this situation, claiming that such kind of situations soberly influence on leaders and officials who make a budget. In any case, any leader face such situations with necessity to minimize extra costs for different stuff trainings in order to make their qualification higher. Instead, workers are called for self-education, through watching free video-lessons, acquainting with special literature, learning from colleagues. Usually, the control of this work is relied on direct supervisors, who make their employees to do their best.

Probably, many of us tend this activity with a hint of distrust, but let us introduce the scenario which is adopted for business game conducting. This quiz easily solves the following tasks:

1 The fastest learning of a new information by participants (remember, more than 75% of material comprehension since they are eager to learn)

- 2 Determination of very one who is worth to be promoted
- 3 It points out star employees, who are good at working in team, as well as intellectuals and leaders
- 3 Inspire to work in team, without forcing
- 4 It helps to take a new level in team cooperation skills, it encourages to struggle till the end and achieves desired results
- 5 Promote to the team cohesion, increase the corporate spirit

It is difficult to reduce staff, as no one wants to lose his work. However, sometimes there is not any variant but doing it and it is extremely important do not let a really qualified employee go away. Moreover, directors and chiefs often faced with a stream of negative from their former workers, who were asked to leave their place. The game allows you to address this problem. Within 2 hours, it reveals who is worth to be considered as a highly-qualified worker and who is not. In addition, this event will be in the public eye, thus failed game participant can take an offense only on himself. The game will show everything.

The time for staff recruitment will be reduced tenfold without quality deterioration and no minor significant detail will be lost. The individual variant of the quiz «Get to know» will become an irreplaceable helper in this case too. Let's imagine: you are a staff recruitment manager or head of any department. Your task is to identify the most appropriate candidate among, suppose, 12 people for your company's vacant post.

As it comes from practice , interviewing of only one candidate can last for about 2 hours, or even more. The quiz "Get to know" allows to determine the best one among all candidates for the same

2 hours. It is also possible to conduct the game among top three - if you want to give to candidates who took 2d and 3d places else one chance. It can be done for one more reason - make the winner prove his victory, and for those who have 2d and 3d place the last opportunity will be given to get the first place. And in this case, that one who wins this time will really deserve it. And may the game takes additional 1,5 hours, anyway it will be faster and more effective in ten times than interviewing each of 12 persons. Also, any suspect in getting post for attractive appearance or something else will be disappeared, as each lost participant will see deserved victory of his contestant. If foreign language knowledge is required from a candidate, we can hold the game in needed language, and by that you can address one more problem – the necessity of extra interviewing for checking language skills.

Doubtless, the corporate leisure time is the most important part of any company's life.

It is absolutely up on you how to create it – whether you prefer loud feast to calm celebration or vice versa, but we can assure you that the quiz «Get to know» will become the perfect decision for any your ideas. The only one thing you have to do – is to say your wish and we will undertake the rest. We will take into account any your requests – game themes, the types of questions (funny ones or on the contrary more serious requiring a deep knowledge) and many others. Besides the entertainment, during which your employees will get great pleasure, the game will help to reinforce the corporate spirit, and will point out the leaders and experts in each team.

Whichever type of game you will decide on, you and your employees will get the following:

- Fascinating and entertaining intellectual game which lasts approximately 2 hours

- The entertaining activity on your party which is different from any before it

Unique, not-from-the Internet questions composed by author of the game - he will do it specially for your occasion

Developing of the team's mental capacity

Developing of memory and intellectual horizons

Improvements in making decision rate, cooperation in a team, promotion of own point of view skills, and more over

Unique prizes for winners

You have an opportunity to hold whole championship comprising any number of games
